

STAT

JS

Karl Wagner advised that each time we send background and biographic material to the White House regarding foreign dignitaries who will be visiting the U. S., we send six copies -- one each to Messrs. Salinger, Bundy, Rostow, and one to the Situation Room; Two additional copies go to the staff officer concerned with the visit. In the case of the memo on  the staff officer was Arthur Schlesinger so he did receive two copies of the memo.

STAT

BLP
18 October

270403